

Students of AIIMS Bhubaneswar excels in all Odisha Quiz Mettle Meet 2017 conducted by Orissa Post

ANTICLOCKWISE FROM TOP: Orissa POST Editor Tathagata Satpathy and Chief Executive Adyasha Satpathy (fourth and third from right, respectively, in all pics) pose with first runners-up in senior category AIIMS-Bhubaneswar, who were presented with a cheque of Rs 50,000; with the second runners-up in senior category KIIT-Bhubaneswar, who bagged a cheque of Rs 25,000; with the first runners-up in junior category Ravenshaw Junior College-Cuttack, who got a cheque of Rs 50,000; and with the second runners-up in junior category St Joseph's High School-Bhubaneswar, who received a cheque of Rs 25,000, at a city hotel Tuesday. Also seen in the pictures, apart from the students, are quizmaster Venky (extreme right in all pics) and event partner TEAM head Nishikanta Mishra.

OP PHOTOS

“There's a common notion among people that doctors can only score in exams. I think we proved this wrong. We can do out-of-the-box things as well. We entered the finals ranked 7th, which was the greatest disadvantage. But that didn't deter our spirits”
