These included the Solo Dance Competition, Solo Song Competition, Duet Dance Competition, Duet Singing Competition, and Painting Canvas Competition. Cultural events have a unique charm, filled with vibrant energy and a sense of community. They provide a platform to celebrate diversity, showcase talent, and connect people through shared experience.

SPORTS EVENTS

Agneya, the Sports events from March 16th to 22nd showcased exceptional athleticism and competitive spirit. Agneya showcased a wide array of thrilling events, with enthusiastic participation from students across the school. From volleyball to kabaddi, basketball to cricket, carrom to chess, and badminton to relay, the competition was fierce and engaging. Additionally, athletics, tug of war, and throwball added to the excitement, with students demonstrating their skills and teamwork.

On the final day of Agneya, the main lawn was meticulously arranged to welcome the esteemed Executive Director, Prof.(Dr.) Ashutosh Biswas, Dean, Prof.(Dr.) Prasanta Raghav Mohapatra, Dr Asha P Shetty, Prof-cum-Principal, College of Nursing, faculty members and students at 7 a.m. for the March Past.

Each house captain representing the Red House, Green House, Blue House, and Yellow House arrived at the main lawn dressed in their team-colored t-shirts and black pants, with ribbons adorning both wrists. The Executive Director, along with the Dean, inaugurated the day's events with shot put and javelin throw competitions, setting the tone for the exciting sports events and subsequent award ceremonies.

Adding to the festive atmosphere, Ms. Moumita Kaur from B.Sc.(Hons) Nursing 2021 batch set up a charming jewelry shop featuring a variety of earrings and necklaces. Meanwhile, Ms. Devlina Paria from the same batch curated a delightful drinks shop offering a range of refreshing beverages and snacks. Both ventures received enthusiastic support from teachers and students alike, who eagerly patronized their offerings.

The grand inauguration of Aloha 2023-24, featured esteemed guests Prof.(Dr.) Ashutosh Biswas, the Executive Director of AIIMS Bhubaneswar and Dr. Asha P Shetty, Prof-cum-Principal, College of Nursing, AIIMS Bhubaneswar.

Cultural performances included a musical ensemble, traditional dance, faculty dance and student performances. Awards were presented to outstanding participants, concluding a successful and memorable event celebrating talent and diversity.
