

Inauguration of HRD cell

The formal inauguration of HRD cell was done on 10-09-2018 at 10AM in mini auditorium, College of Nursing.

The inauguration started with invocation song. Dr. Jawahar S.K. Pillai, Joint MS and Chairman, HRD cell formally welcomed the dignitaries on the dais, faculty members of different departments and the participants. He made the audience aware about the origin and significance of human resource development cell at AIIMS, Bhubaneswar. Lighting of the lamp was done by a group of dignified persons – Dr. Gitanjali Batmanabane (Director, AIIMS, Bhubaneswar), Mr. P.K. Ray (Deputy director – Admin.), Dr. Vikas Bhatia (Dean), Dr. Sachidananda Mohanty (Medical Superintendent), Dr. Jawahar S.K. Pillai (Joint MS, Chairman HRD Cell), Dr. Asha P.Shetty (Principal, College of Nursing, member – HRD cell)

Dr. Gitanjali Batmanabane, Director in her address emphasized upon the importance of induction training program for new nursing officers and the role of good communication in their professional career.

Mr. P.K.Ray, Deputy director, Administration in his address mentioned about significance of nursing officers in hospital and wished all success to the new joiners.

In the felicitation address Dr. S.N. Mohanty, Medical Superintendent expressed the role of induction training program in the development of career and hospital.

Dr. Vikas Bhatia, Dean in his address mentioned that the nursing officers should be well versed with the hospital, its functions and daily activities. He also explained about the importance of staying healthy both mentally and physically in order to deliver quality health care to the patients.

In the end, Dr. Asha P.Shetty, principal college of nursing proposed thanks to all esteemed dignitaries present, the organizers and the participants.

