Dear Delegates,

The AIIMS, Bhubaneswar, Odisha was established to create a centre of academic and research excellence. The Department of Otorhinolaryngology and Head & Neck Surgery in its endeavour to propagate this saga is proud to organize the 1st cadaveric Hands-on workshop on Head & Neck reconstruction and Endoscopic sinus surgery. Our workshop and scientific sessions shall be a pathway for the young surgeons to learn from renowned faculties across India. The competitive events like poster and paper presentation will provide a perfect platform to exhibit the skills of our talented doctors. The cultural and spiritual monuments of Odisha provides an excellent backdrop for this event. On behalf of the Organizing committee I welcome you all to the academic feast.

Hoping for your esteemed participation.

Yours sincerely,

Dr C Preetam
Organizing chairman
