

Inauguration of Doctor's Residential Complex at Tangi 26/04/19

AIIMS Bhubaneswar became the first among newly established AIIMS to start Residential complex for doctors, a step further to provide health care at doorstep to rural community of Tangi block. On the evening of 26th April, Doctors Residential complex of Rural Health Training Center Tangi was inaugurated by Prof Gitanjali Batmanabane, Director AIIMS Bhubaneswar, in presence of Prof Vikas Bhatia, Dean, Mr Ray, DDA, Mr Mishra SE ,Mr Ratnakar, I/C FA along with the faculty and residents of CMFM department and other staffs and officers of AIIMS Bhubaneswar. It would go a long way in terms of patient care along with strengthening the training of interns and residents.

