

CNE/ CME Report on Hospice and Palliative Care

CNE/CME on Hospice and Palliative care was organized jointly by College of Nursing, Department of Anaesthesiology and Department of Surgical Oncology, AIIMS ,BBSR on 21st October, 2019 (2pm – 5pm), at mini auditorium with the objective to sensitize the professionals about Hospice and Palliative care.

A total of 99 delegates attended the CNE/CME, including 15 faculty, 62 B.Sc & M.Sc Nursing students , 01 Physiotherapist along with 21 Senior Nursing officers & Nursing officers.

The programme started with formal welcome of participants. Dr. Asha P Shetty, Principal, CON, AIIMS, BBSR unfolded the theme of Hospice and Palliative care for the year 2019: My Care, My Right. Dr Bhaskar Rao, Associate Professor, Department of Anaesthesia introduced Basic Concepts of Hospice & Palliative care to participants and had interactive session on Pain management. Ms Mangyarkarasi, Nursing Officer, AIIMS, BBSR presented two case scenarios on pain management by role playing with the help of her colleagues.

Ms Anuradha, Nursing Officer, AIIMS, BBSR discussed about Storage, Dispensing and Documentation of Narcotics. Ms A S Subhatra, Tutor, College of Nursing had an informative session on Ethical and legal issues in Palliative care setting. Ms Harpreet Kaur , Tutor, College of Nursing talked about End of Life care. Communication in Palliative care setting was explained by Dr Sukdev Nayak (Professor, Department of Anaesthesiology) with the help of a game Chinese whispering. The session were appreciated by the delegates.

Dr Gitanjali Batmanabane, Director AIIMS, BBSR addressed the gathering for the valedictory session. Dr Asha P Shetty felicitated the Director, Professor Madhabananda Kar (HOD, Department of Surgical Oncology) and resource persons. 4 undergraduate nursing students were also honoured for their timely help and humanitarian act. The programme concluded at 5pm with vote of thanks by Dr Asha P Shetty.